Events & Celebrations

SCIENCE WEEK - 18th April 2023 to 21st April 2023

'Let every breath, every word and every step make our mother earth proud of us.'

The genius minds at PGGS walked that extra mile towards 'Green Earth' by wallowing in an array of creative activities were organized with a view to sensitise the children about the conservation of natural resources and to motivate them to do their bit towards making their planet even more beautiful.

'An initiative to mark a Difference'

PGGS Family connected together for an initiative to conserve energy on the eve of Earth Day, 22 April 2023 and turned off all the non-essential electrical appliances from 8:00 pm to 8:15 pm to contribute as a responsible citizen for the sustainable future. Even during the school hours on 21 April all the non-essential lights were switched off.

We are proud to make this initiative a success.

WORLD BOOK DAY: 24th April, 2023

'There is only one thing that can replace a book: the next book'

The Paul Georgeans are regularly exposed to a wider world with limitless possibilities, when it comes to reading. Books take one on a joy ride, helping the reader amass great wealth of knowledge alongside inculcating pleasure of reading.

The enthusiastic readers revered the reading-goal of successfully completing their much-loved book in a week's span. Post reading, each one presented the review too on the same.

On 24th April, a life-size human book was formed by all school-mates signifying 'KNOWLEDGE GIVES WINGS'.

Orientation Day: The Parent Orientation at PGGS covered school norms, daily activities, philosophy, curriculum, and policies. Parents were informed about the school's behavioural expectations, subject areas, extracurricular activities, and sports programs. The school's philosophy emphasized the development of well-rounded and responsible individuals. The curriculum is challenging and relevant to the real world, and assessment and evaluation follow both formative and summative methods. The orientation also covered pick-up and drop-off procedures, daily attendance, health, and safety protocols. This orientation aimed to build a strong partnership between parents and the school to support student's growth and success.

Parents speak

As a role model to my child, I make sure my child is in positive environment always. Usually, parents are the first people to have an influence on a child and their values. A good-mannered child is always loved and welcomed everywhere. I strongly believe that good values are acquired more by observation than by formal teaching. It is necessary that parents must themselves be an example of good behaviour for their children, they should be polite and respectful to the elders as children observe them very keenly.

Parents must take care that they do not even tell harmless LIES which will ultimately confuse the child. parents should inculcate some good values n good etiquettes like table manners, responsibility, self-management, discipline, punctuality, family bonding, managing pocket money, not be jealous, having a positive frame of mind right from their early years by following and keep repeating these habits every day.

And most important factor to remember while bringing up a child to keep our expectations realistic.
